1

We are learning about what is important in friendships and family relationships

We will be able to:

- ✓ describe what is most important in a friendship or family relationship
- ✓ recognise that friendships and family relationships may change for different reasons and how to manage this

2

Do you remember the last lesson?
We learned about Special people in our lives.

We thought about what they do that makes them special to you?

My special people

What is most important?

Now look at the worksheet in your pack.

What is most important in a positive friendship or family relationship?

Sort the statements.

Put the things you think are most important for you in the centre square and the less important things in the outer square

5

Additional activity

Give me 5!

If someone (a special person) is far away or we don't see them that often, what are some fun ways to let them know we still care?

Think of five different ideas!
