

Diary

Monday 15th March 1855

On Scutari hospital in Turkey the conditions are awful, overcrowded and filthy. There are not enough beds, so men are lying on the floor. Every night I light my lantern and walk around the wards to check how the soldiers are.