

Stepping Stones School

Parental Feedback

Summer Term 2022 We collated parental view at our Summer events.

Do you feel like your child has made progress?

"Yes definitely! My child is happy to come to school now"

"I know my child has made massive progress since starting here, in so many ways. Not just learning!"

"Massively. Although he still has his moments at home he has also improved since attending Stepping Stones."

"Yes, huge progress. He has come on leaps and bounds. He is a different child. His anxiety is nowhere near as bad and he thinks so much more highly of himself."

"Massive amount of progress made whilst he has been attending, learnt excellent skills in how to manage his emotions."

"100%"

"An immense amount - Thank You!"

Not the way we hoped but he has made academic progress. He is talking about what he is learning at school whereas he had never done this before. He is talking more about strategies and values at home, so hopefully he will start to use these more often."

"OMG Yes! He is a totally different boy, due to your commitment to the pupils in your school."

"When my child started school she wasn't accessing any curriculum, she wasn't able to manage her behaviour. Now she is a completely different girl. She is able to do school work and is able to find coping strategies."

What does your child like about school?

"He can be himself."

"He likes the math's lessons, small classes and all the staff."

"He likes the small classes and all the school. He likes the routines and his teacher."

"All of the maths work, the chill zone and everyone in his class."

"XX was nervous at the beginning, but now absolutely loves attending, he loves that he is listened to."

"Helping others and collecting his coins."

"Everything! The environment is very calm and relaxed. The time the staff spend with XX to ensure he is well. The activities, XX is eager to join in and has learnt to ride a bike which is absolutely brilliant."

"Teachers! XX loves being a role model and loves making things and playing outside."

"My child likes that they are listened to and understood. They feel they can be themselves in school. The teachers and staff care."

Extra feedback and Comments

"XX is doing much better than we expected. Staff are easy to talk to and make parents feel welcome and at ease."

"We will deeply miss Stepping Stones. Great communication from the school and great staff!"

"Keep doing what you are doing! It is fantastic. Thank You!"

"Keep doing what you are doing because it works."

"Amazing teaching, very caring school with excellent approaches."

"Keep doing the amazing work!"

"An absolute fantastic school, very lucky XX had the pleasure of your companies."

"We love the staff and how friendly they are. We know they have our son's best interests at heart."

"Very caring, very approachable, angels in disguise!"

"I will be forever grateful for what the staff have done for us. I don't know where our girl would be now without Stepping Stones."
